I like that v. much: "the nefarious nature of the situation has become clear".

Think we could still say something like:

"the _____ nature of the situation has become clear."

Insert adjective: menacing, troubling, nefarious

Run this by Alexandra, I'm fine as suggested, just an idea

Here are Alexandra's edits. They are very good and we should consider getting them integrated as well. I love the insert of 'dire' the most. Let me know what you think.
