Got it. As you can probably see on my calendar, I have about 7 meetings and a dinner in Chicago tomorrow...so you can attempt to loop me in via my cell but odds are that I will be in a meeting. Please try me no matter what as I would like to speak with him when he calls.

Not really. He's usually good for 24 hours.

Kyle - see attached, these are some quotes that Edelman recommended (with my edits included). These are mostly sourced from the investor letter (in some cases verbatim but otherwise, directionally). The idea is that Edelman will use these quotes (with your feedback) in the outreach process so that we can maximize your time and only provide a limited few with access to you directly while still providing quotes.

Mike Geller and I are speaking with Greg at 8pm CT, will report feedback of what I learn
