You should talk to John Wayne Walding (you can look him up). He is a friend and also is a Purple Heart green beret who lost his leg in one of the biggest firefights in recent military history. I will send you his contact data.

I will also make a contribution to your event. Unfortunately, I have a UT board meeting that day so I will be in Austin.

I will be in town this weekend with the kids.

Keep your eye on UDF...I can't imagine how it all holds together after all of this.

Kyle

Here is the event and here is the sponsor form.

Also, do you have Purple Heart veteran that may need some help? Prefer Denton County but if DFW that will work too.

Also making a contribution to the Gold Star Families who are building this in Fort Worth
